

PARC DES PRINCES REGULATIONS

1. Definitions

The term "Stadium" refers to the confines of the Parc des Princes and all areas and facilities within the perimeter marked by the outer walls and accessible solely by persons with Tickets. The term "Operator" refers to the company that operates the Stadium, i.e. Société d'Exploitation Sports et Evénements.

The term "Event" refers to any sporting, recreational or cultural event (football match, concert, show, etc), any private event (filming, second-hand market, etc) or any corporate event (conference, seminar, reception, etc) taking place at the Stadium.

The term "Organiser" refers to the Event organiser.

The term "Ticket" refers to a physical or electronic ticket giving the public admission to the Stadium, including season tickets depending on the Event.

2. PURPOSE OF THE REGULATIONS

All persons entering the confines of the Stadium must comply with the present regulations, including their Annex : Health Regulations, which are displayed at the entrances, inside the Stadium and on the website of the Organiser of the Event concerned, with any regulations introduced by the Organiser and with the legislation and official regulations applicable at sports arenas. The Operator reserves the right to amend the present regulations in whole or in part at any time on legitimate grounds, notably safety, hygiene and service improvements, or to take account of changes in legislation, official regulations or case law. Amended Stadium regulations will apply as soon as they are displayed at the entrances and/or published on the website of the Organiser for the Event concerned. Should one or more of the stipulations of the present regulations be made ineffective by the application of a law or an official regulation or following a definitive decision by a competent court or a public authority, the other stipulations will retain their full force and scope.

3. STADIUM ADMISSION

- i) Admission to the Stadium is strictly reserved for holders of valid Tickets, which will be checked (Event type, date, seat category / package, holder's name, etc) by an agent of the Organiser and/or using the computerised Stadium admission system.
- ii) Minors aged under 16 not accompanied by an adult will be refused admission to the Stadium. The Operator advises parents against bringing children of under five years of age to the Stadium.
- iii) Provided that they have valid Tickets, persons with reduced mobility and the persons accompanying them may gain admission to the areas reserved for them via the special entrances provided.
- iv) Anyone entering the Stadium to work there must be accredited or authorised by the Organiser and must be able to identify themselves.
- v) The public are informed that to enter the Stadium they may be asked to produce proof of identity, to respect hygiene measures, to be patted down and asked to present any objects that they are carrying. Pat-downs, identity checks and visual inspection of hand luggage may be carried out at the gates of the Stadium or anywhere inside it by any police officer and/or agent of the Organiser licensed by the Paris Police Commissioner in accordance with Decree No. 2005-307 of 24th March 2005.
- vi) The public must adhere to the seat numbering and category / package and follow the indications given by the Organiser's staff to show them to their seats in the stand or authorised areas.
- vii) Random checks may be made within the Stadium and Tickets must be kept ready for inspection all times.
- viii) The public must comply with any dress code obligations required by the Organiser or applying in specific areas of the Stadium.

4. DEPOSITED ITEMS

Banned items will be confiscated by the security staff and returned after the Event subject to storage availability, though items may be refused. Tin cans and glass bottles will be put in bins for non-returnable products. Voluminous items, bags (other than handbags, shoulder bags, clutch bags, satchels and briefcases), umbrellas and motorcycle helmets must be handed over in return for a ticket, which must be produced in order to recover the item after the Event. Any effects or items not collected when the Stadium closes will be sent to the central lost property office at the Paris police headquarters.

5. PHOTOGRAPHY, RECORDING AND COPYING

Photography, audio recording and filming in the Stadium require the Organiser's express permission, though they are tolerated by Event spectators provided that they comply with the following conditions: audio and still / moving pictures recorded in the Stadium may be used solely free of charge and for strictly personal purposes within the family circle and within the sphere of private life. Among other things, this excludes dissemination and publication on on-line social networks (including web platforms for sharing videos, photographs and audio or other things) and commercial use and distribution. The Operator or Organiser reserves the right to ban all photography, filming and audio recording by anyone, including spectators, in certain areas of the Stadium or during certain Events.

6. USE OF ATTENDEES' IMAGES

All persons attending an Event at the Stadium grant the Organiser, free of charge, for the whole world and the statutory copyright protection period, the right to record, use, exploit and represent their image and voice on any medium in relation to the Event and/or the promotion of the Stadium, the Operator, the Organiser and/or their partners, such as photographs, live transmissions on giant screens, live or recorded television broadcasts and video or audio programmes and/or recordings.

7. BANS

7.1 General bans

Persons subject to a court or official ban on entering or being in the vicinity of an arena hosting a sporting event are strictly banned from admission to the Stadium, as is anyone clearly behaving in a violent, racist or insulting manner or in a state of inebriation or under the influence of narcotics, without prejudice to court prosecution.

7.2 Banned objects

- iii) all places in the Stadium where a smoking ban sign is displayed.

Ashtrays are provided in areas where smoking is permitted and must be used to dispose of cigarette ends and other residue of smoking products, which must not be thrown onto the floor or ground.

8. PENALTIES FOR NON-OBSERVANCE OF THE STADIUM REGULATIONS

8.1 Criminal penalties / Stadium bans

The following offences are punishable by fines and/or imprisonment and, where appropriate, additional penalties in accordance with Articles L332-3 to L332-16 of the French "Code du Sport":

- i) entering or being in the vicinity of an arena hosting a sporting event in breach of a court order or an official ban;
- ii) entering a sporting arena in a state of inebriation; bringing or attempting to bring alcoholic drinks into a sporting arena;
- iii) inciting, via any means, spectator hatred or violence towards a referee, sporting judge, player or any other person or group of people;
- iv) bringing in, attempting to bring in, wearing or displaying insignia, marks or symbols evoking a racist or xenophobic ideology;
- v) bringing in, attempting to bring in, possessing or using rockets or fireworks of any nature and bringing in any object that might constitute a weapon;
- vi) throwing projectiles that might endanger personal safety;
- vii) entering the field of play in such a way as to interfere with the course of the competition or to endanger personal safety.

8.2 Other penalties

Any conduct banned in the present regulations proven to have taken place may, in addition to the possibility of court prosecution, lead to the Organiser applying one or more of the following penalties: refusal of admission to the Stadium or certain Stadium areas, ejection from the Stadium or certain Stadium areas, taking the offender to the police authorities, season ticket cancellation or suspension (for Paris Saint-Germain matches) without any refund and/or any other penalties determined by the Organiser.

9. VIDEO SURVEILLANCE

For the safety of the public, the Stadium is equipped with a video surveillance system under the supervision of police detectives. Images from the system may be used in the event of court prosecutions. Attendees have the right to access pictures during the retention period in accordance with Article L253-5 of the French "Code de la sécurité intérieure" Home Security Code, which they can exercise by writing to the following: Société d'Exploitation Sports et Evénements, 24 rue du Commandant Guilbaud, 75016 Paris.

10. ORGANISER'S RIGHTS

In all circumstances where the safety of property or persons in the Stadium may be endangered and, generally, all circumstances inherent in the smooth organisation of the Event, the public must follow the recommendations or instructions given by the Organiser's staff. Accordingly, the Organiser reserves the right, among other things:

- i) to prevent attendees from entering and/or leaving the Stadium and to close the Stadium in whole or in part, temporarily or definitively, in the event of overcrowding or disturbances;
- ii) to interrupt or stop the Event;
- iii) to detain spectators temporarily in the Stadium at the end of the Event;
- iv) to evacuate the Stadium in whole or in part;
- v) to allocate anyone a seat other than the one indicated on his/her Ticket.

11. OPERATOR AND/OR ORGANISER'S LIABILITY DISCLAIMER

The Operator and/or Organiser disclaim liability for accidents resulting from a breach of the present regulations by the public.
